

INDEX

INDEX

- Accident prevention in United States shipping, 91
- Advertising: of cotton textiles, 40-43
of department stores, 84
of phonographs and records: effectiveness of, 9
policy and methods of, 11-13
- Aizawa, Saburo, 148
- Araki, Sadao, 147
- BABST, EARL D., Restriction of Unfair Foreign Competition with Domestic Sugar Refining, 1-7
- Barraud, Francis, 8
- Benson, Henry K., cited, 15, 118
- Berliner, Emil, 8
- Bezanson, A., cited, 120
- Bignell, L. G. E., cited, 117
- Bituminous coal industry
Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 enforcement of, uncertain, 127 monopoly fostered by, 127-128
price-fixing provisions of, 122-123 competition with, by substitute fuels, 125 economic status of, 120-121
efforts to stabilize prior to 1937, 121-122
factional and political control of Coal Commission, 124-125
price fixing in, 121-129
price structure, rigidity of, 125-127
production and consumption, distribution of, 123
substitute fuels, trend toward, 125
- Blithe, W., 22
- Borodin, Michael, 150
- Boyce, C. W., cited, 17
- BRAND, CHARLES J., The Fertilizer Industry, 22-33
- Brow, W. E., cited, 18
- BUSS, CLAUDE A., Governmental Reconstruction in China, 150-153
- Buying habits, changes in, 74-75
- Byas, Hugh, 145
- CARTER, EDWARD W., Price Fixing in the Bituminous Coal Industry, 120-129 cited, 128
- CARUS, CLAYTON D., Exit American Oriental Trade, 140-144
- Caruso, Enrico, 9
- Cato, Marcus Porcius, 22
- Chain stores, see Department stores—competitors of
- Chang Tso-lin, 160, 161
- Ch'en, Eugene, 163
- Chiang Kai-shek, 145, 150, 151, 153, 158
- CHINA AND SOVIET RUSSIA, Russell M. Story, 154-164
- Chinese government: local, 152-153
metropolitan, 152
provincial, 151-152
structure of, 150-151
- Chinese-Russian relations
China's request for Russian help, 162-163
Chinese policy, 161-162
influenced by foreign powers, 159-160 difficulties in determining, 154 future of, 163-164
history of, 1917-1937, 157-158
re Chinese Eastern Railway, 162
results of, 163
Soviet policy, 158-159, 160-161
under Czarist Russia, 155
- Coal, see Bituminous coal industry
- Columella, Lucius, 22
- Communism
in China, see Chinese-Russian relations
in Japan, 145
- Competition: among railroads, wasteful, 57-58
between American and foreign shipping, 89, 91 department stores: competitive cycle of, 73-74
competitors of, 75-77
- Japanese
in international trade, 133-139, 141-142
with United States cotton industry, 35-36 kraft paper, within the industry and with other industries, 17, 20-21, 44 with coal, by substitute fuels, 125 with cotton industry: Japanese, 35-36
paper, rayon, jute, 43-46
with domestic sugar refining, foreign, 1-7 with fertilizer industry: Government, 30-31 within the industry, practices improved, 92
with lumber, by steel and cement, 112 with phonograph industry, by radio, 9
- Consumers: changes in habits of, 74-75
research regarding desires of, 86-87
- Coolidge, Archibald Cary, 154
- Cotton
economic importance of the industry, 34-35 Government aid to the industry, 46-47
improvements in cotton fabrics, 38-40 market for: contraction of foreign, 47 possibilities in domestic, 47-48
production of raw and manufactured cotton, 34-35 status of the industry, 35, 47-48
uses of, 34, 39, 42
apparel, 38
construction, road and dwelling, 42-43
household, 40
industrial, 36-38
See also Advertising; Competition
- COTTON CONSUMPTION IN THE UNITED STATES, Charles K. Everett, 34-48

- Dan, Takuma, 148
- DEPARTMENT STORE, THE—A PROBLEM OF ELEPHANTIASIS, Frank Thomson Hypps, 70-87
- Department stores
as affected by: legislative restrictions, 78
social and political conditions, 77-78 their size, 70-73
competitive cycle of, 73-74
competitors of—variety chains, mail order houses, specialty stores, 75-77 expenses of, 80-81
reduction of, needed, 84
internal problems of, 79-83
labor unrest in, 85
profitable and unprofitable departments, 81-83
sales per employee, 83
statistics of economic conditions of, 70-73, 75-77, 80-83
suggested improvements in methods of, 86-87
taxation of, 85-86
- Digby, Kenelm, 22
- Divorce rates, 75
- DOG HAS NINE LIVES, A: THE STORY OF THE PHONOGRAPH, H. S. Maraniss, 8-13
- Edison, Thomas A., 8
- EVERETT, CHARLES K., Cotton Consumption in the United States, 34-48
- EXIT AMERICAN ORIENTAL TRADE, Clayton D.
Carus, 140-144
- FAHS, CHARLES B., Recent Japanese Politics, 145-149
- Far East: tension in, 155-156
See also Chinese government; Chinese-Russian relations; Japanese politics; Japanese trade expansion; Russia
- Feng Yu-hsiang, 162
- FERTILIZER INDUSTRY, THE, Charles J. Brand, 22-33
control laws, 30
expansion of, before and since World War, 24 factory capacity and location, 29-30 fertilizers: composition of, 22, 25-28 consumption of compared with farm cash income, 28-29
in selected countries, 24
in United States, 24, 29
first recorded uses of, 22-23
raw materials for—consumption, production, exports, and imports of, 25-28 Government production, 30-31
improved practices in, 32
National Fertilizer Association, work of, 33
sales limitations of, 28
status of, 22, 24-25, 30, 31-33
- Field, F. V., cited, 151
- FINANCIAL RECOVERY OF THE KRAFT INDUSTRY,
David B. Jeremiah, 14-21
- Fisher, W. E., cited, 120
- Foreign trade, United States balance of trade, 99-100
decline of, 1929-1933, 88
exports
by commodity groups, 101-103, 140
geographical distribution of, 106-108
factors in recovery of, 100-101
imports
by commodity groups, 104-106, 140
geographical distribution of, 108-109
statistics of, 1929-1932-1936, 99-109
See also International trade; Markets
- FREIGHT LOCOMOTIVE INDUSTRY, THE, George H. Houston, 62-69
causes of obsolescence, 65-66
maintenance cost increases with age, 64-65 present locomotives obsolete, 62-63 relative use of locomotives, 66-67 replacement policy of railroads, 67-68
savings effected by new locomotives, 63-64
- Gilbert, Henry, 23
- Gold movement into United States, 100
- Government, see Chinese government
- Government aid to cotton industry, 46-47
- Government production: of fertilizers, 30-31
of hydroelectric power, 125
- GOVERNMENTAL RECONSTRUCTION IN CHINA,
Claude A. Buss, 150-153
- Great Lakes, see Shipping
- GRODINSKY, JULIUS, The Steam Railroad Industry, 49-61
- Hanwell, Norman D., quoted, 153
- Hartman, E. F., cited, 114, 115
- Hayashi, Senjuro, 149
- Hervey, John G., cited, 120
- Hirota, Koki, 148
- Holford, G. H., 24
- Hoover, Herbert, 96
- HOUSTON, GEORGE H., The Freight Locomotive Industry, 62-69
- Humboldt, Alexander von, 23
- HYPPS, FRANK THOMSON, The Department Store
—A Problem of Elephantiasis, 70-87
- Ikki, Kita, 146
- IMPROVEMENTS IN THE LUMBER INDUSTRY, J. P.
Simpson and Edmund L. C. Swan, 110-119
- Inland waterways, see Shipping
- Inouye, Junnosuke, 148
- Installment buying, induced by rising prices, 85
- International trade
fertilizers, exports and imports of raw materials for, 25-28
United States share of world trade, 101,
142-143
See also Foreign trade, United States; Japanese trade expansion; Markets; Sugar

- Inukai, Tsuyoshi, 148
Itagaki, Seichiro, 149
- Japanese politics: army factions, 147-149
 evils of party rule, 146-147
 pan-Asia movement, 145-146
 reform groups, 146
- Japanese trade expansion
 as affecting United States cotton industry, 35-36 extent of, 141
 exulted in by Japanese public, 134-135
 feared by Western industrialized society, 133-134 Japan's advantages in international trade, 141-142 minimized by the "debunkers," 137-138 regarded as beneficial to the world by Japanese apologists, 135-137 viewed as leading eventually to world war by economic determinists, 138 viewed indefinitely by scientific moderates, 138-139
- JEREMIAH, DAVID B., Financial Recovery of the Kraft Industry, 14-21
- Joffe, Adolph, 157
- Johnson, Eldridge, 8, 9
- Kanin, Prince Kotohito, 149
- Karakhan, L. M., 160, 161
- KAWAI, KAZUO, Significance of Japanese Industrial and Commercial Growth, 133-139
- Kraft industry
 changes affecting, 18-20
 competition in, 17
 competition of, with other industries, 20-21 finances of, 16-18
 production in, 16, 19, 20
 See also Wood pulp
- KRAMER, ROLAND L., Recovery of American Foreign Trade, 99-109
- Labor: in bituminous coal industry, 120-121
 unrest, in department stores, 85
 See also Wages
- Lawes, John B., 23
- Legislation
 re bituminous coal industry, 121-129
 re department stores, 77-79
 re fertilizers, 30
- Lenin, Nikolay, 162
- Liebig, Justus von, 22, 23
- Locomotives, see Freight Locomotive Industry
- Lodge, F. S., 22
- Loree, L. F., 49
- Lough, William H., cited, 83
- Lumber industry: changes needed in, 113-114, 119
 competition of steel and cement with lumber, 111-112 decline in per capita consumption of lumber, 110-113 decline in profits, 110-111
 fireproofed wood, 114-115
 new uses for wood, 117-118
 plywood, 116-117
 waste utilization, 118-119
 wood preservation, 115-116
- Macrae, Herbert Alexander, 138
- Mail order houses, see Department stores—competitors of
- MARANISS, H. S., A Dog Has Nine Lives: The Story of the Phonograph, 8-13
- Markets: for cotton, 47-48
 foreign, comparative figures of, 142-143
 Oriental, dominated by Japan, 141-142
 See also Foreign trade, United States
- Marshall, Alfred, cited, 127
- Marx, Karl, 145, 159
- Maurette, Fernand, 138
- Morris, H. L., cited, 120
- Murph, D. S., 22
- Nagata, Tetsuzan, 148
- Okada, Keisuke, 148
- Orchard, John E., 137
- Pai Chung-hsi, 151
- Palissy, Bernard, 22
- Paper, see Kraft industry
- Peffer, Nathaniel, 138
 quoted, 151
- PERRY, HOBART S., The United States Shipping Industry, 88-98
- Perry, Thomas D., cited, 116, 117
- Phonograph industry
 as affected by the depression, 10 improvements in phonographs, 9-10 increase in record business, 11 origin of phonographs, 8
 radio competition with, 9
 See also Advertising
- Plant food elements, 23, 25, 27
 amount per ton of fertilizer, 32
- Pliny, 22
- Population of United States, age composition of, 75
- Potash: in United States, 27-28
 sources of, 27
- Price fixing for department stores, 78-79
- PRICE FIXING IN THE BITUMINOUS COAL INDUSTRY, Edward W. Carter, 120-129
- Pugh, E., 23
- Radio as a competitor of the phonograph, 9
- Railroads: competitive wastes of, 57-58
 consolidation of, 57
 existing, 58-60
 regional, needed, 60-61

- economies introduced by, 55-57, 59
 prosperity of, linked with coal and iron ore, 50-55 selling prices, decline in, 52-53 statistics of economic decline and recovery of, 49-54 traffic, decline in, 51-54
See also Freight Locomotive Industry
- Rates, shipping, freight and passenger, 90-91, 93-94, 96
- Raw materials for fertilizers, 25-28
- Rayon, as competitor of cotton, 45-46
- RECENT JAPANESE POLITICS, Charles B. Fahs, 145-149
- RECOVERY OF AMERICAN FOREIGN TRADE, Roland L. Kramer, 99-109
- Reitell, Charles, cited, 128
- RESTRICTION OF UNFAIR FOREIGN COMPETITION WITH DOMESTIC SUGAR REFINING, Earl D. Babst, 1-7
- Roosevelt, Franklin D., 96
- Rue, John D., quoted, 19
- Russia: Bolshevik objectives, 156-157
 Czarist Russia's program, 155
See also Chinese-Russian relations
- Ruston, Herbert, cited, 17
- Ryohei, Uchida, 146
- Saionji, Kimmochi, 146, 148
- Saito, Makoto, 148
- Sales promotion, see Advertising
- Sansom, George Bailey, 138
- Saussure, Horace Bénédict de, 22
- Schaller, E. O., cited, 71
- Scott, Leon, 8
- Shen, N. C., cited, 152
- Shidehara, Kijuro, 146
- Shipping, United States
 coastwise traffic, 92-93
 competition with foreign, 89, 91
 divisions of, 88
 economies introduced in, 91-93, 94-96
 Great Lakes trade route, 94-96
 inland waterways, 96
 New York State Barge Canal system, 96-98
 intercoastal trade route, 93-94
 labor policies, 91-92
 new vessels, built and needed, 90, 95
 passenger traffic
 compared with that in foreign vessels, 89
 cruise passengers, 90
 decline of, 1930-1934, 88
 port turn-around, 93, 94-95
 promotion of use of American vessels, 89-90 rate policies, 90-91
See also Foreign trade, United States
- SIGNIFICANCE OF JAPANESE INDUSTRIAL AND COMMERCIAL GROWTH, Kazuo Kawai, 133-139
- SIMPSON, J. P., and EDMUND L. C. SWAN, Improvements in the Lumber Industry, 110-119
- STEAM RAILROAD INDUSTRY, THE, Julius Grodinsky, 49-61
- STORY, RUSSELL M., China and Soviet Russia, 154-164
- Subsidies, see Government aid to cotton industry
- Suetsugu, Nobumasa, 149
- Sugar: advantages of domestic refining, 1 policies of various countries regarding imports of, 1, 3-4
 British experience, 1-3
 United States policy, 4-6
 United States imports of, 4-6
- Sun Yat-sen, 150, 157, 159, 161, 162, 163
- SWAN, EDMUND L. C., and J. P. SIMPSON, Improvements in the Lumber Industry, 110-119
- Tariffs
 as hindering United States foreign trade, 88, 89
 inadequate to protect cotton industry, 46
 on sugar imports: British, 2-3
 by various countries, 1, 3-4
 United States, 4
- Taxation of department stores, 85-86
- Terauchi, Juichi, 148
- Tode, Arthur M., cited, 89
- Ugaki, Kazushige, 148, 149
- UNITED STATES SHIPPING INDUSTRY, THE, Hobart S. Perry, 88-98
- Utley, Freda, 137, 138
- Varro, Marcus Terentius, 22
- Victrola, see Phonograph industry
- Wages: in sugar producing and refining industries in Puerto Rico and United States, 6-7 Japanese, compared with British and American, 134, 136, 142
 of United States seamen, 91-92
- Washington, George, 23
- Weigh, Ken Shen, 158
- Wheeler, Burton K., cited, 120
- Willett, Herbert, 22
- Wood, see Kraft industry; Lumber industry;
 Wood pulp
- Wood pulp: classification of, 14 processes used in manufacture of, 14-15 utilizes waste hemlock, 118
See also Kraft industry
- Wu Pei-fu, 157, 160
- Yamagata, Aritomo, 146